

2025 LGC Year in Review

Snowy start to 2025
Gardening season
seems so far away!

Ikebana workshop in April/ Barbara M.

Popular and fun/
so much material
to use!

Installation of new officers (2025-27)
@ May meeting

Great food!

Informative talk by ACT

Locally conserved lands

April and May gardens and window boxes prepared

Lowes discount and Espoma grant helped!

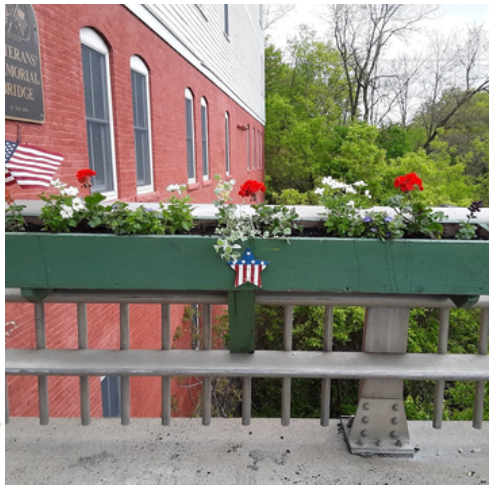

Great Teamwork at Opera House Gardens!

Mulching and weeding

May 2025 Memorial Day parade

Town no longer able to maintain,
store or install
boxes after 2025

June 2025 Dowsing program

Experienced dowser & chances to try techniques

not just water-finding!

Espoma grant - organic soil
ammendments used in LCC gardens June 2025

Cady Falls Tour

Member Garden Tours

Franconia and Twin Mountain!

July Heat!

Lovely vegetable gardens and use of natural elements in 2 member gardens

Twin Mountain Garden Club garden tours

Grace of Heartsong Farm

August 2025

Herb Talk

Convent Garden Tours feeding fresh produce to local community in need

SOLITARY BEE BOX
FEMALE BEES LAY A SERIES OF EGGS IN ONE TUBE.
THE NEW BEES EMERGE THE FOLLOWING SUMMER

HOST PLANTS for Butterflies

Butterflies choose specific kinds of plants to lay their eggs on based on what is nutritious for their caterpillars.

Great Spangled Fritillary
Host plant: Violets

Monarch Fest Gardens Bethel Maine Aug. 2025

Crafts from creative members for sale!

Quilt Raffle!!

September 2025 NHFGC activity

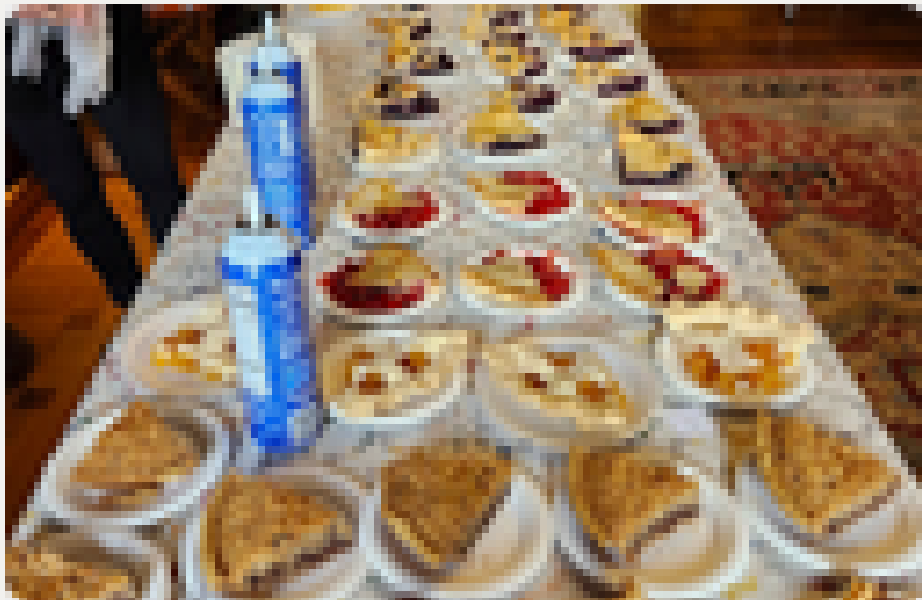

Squam Lake Gathering & Kirkwood Gardens

LGC provided nametags/registration

Pie Fest! & craft sale 2025

Great Fundraiser!

NH Master Gardener

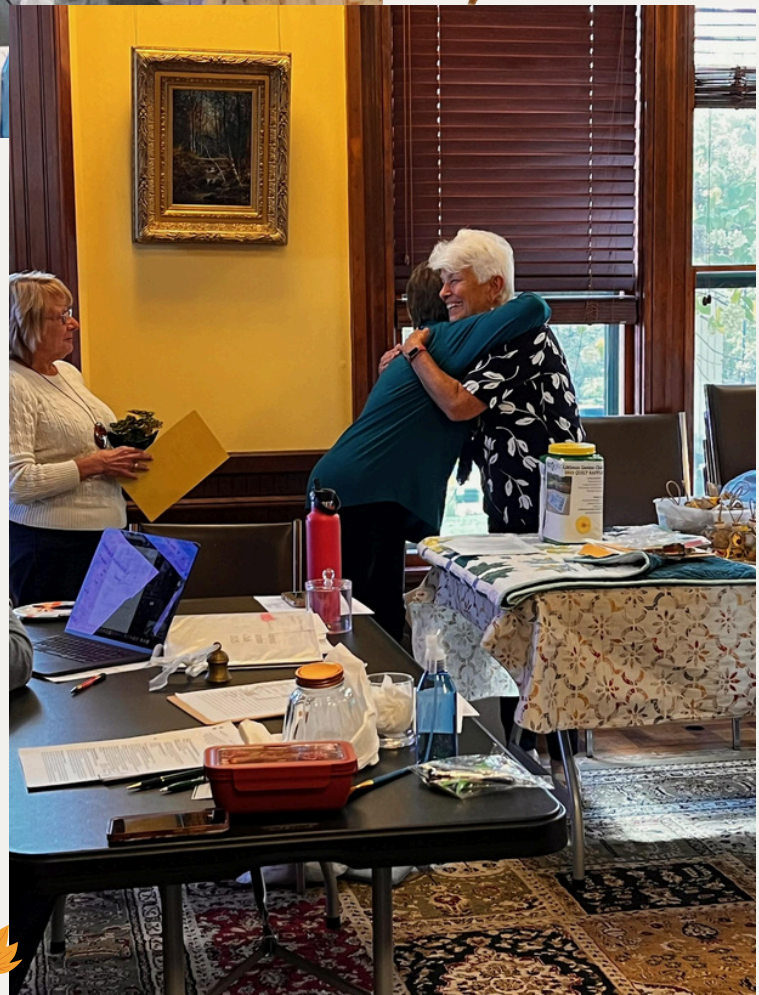

Pollinator Garden Talk

NHFGC Lifetime Membership Awarded

Cathy Parker recognized for LGC contributions
October 2025

Terrariums!

Fantastic workshop leaders!

Wreath Decorating!

Holiday Potluck and mini arrangements for Nursing home/Senior CenterCe Littleton Garden Club Rocks!

Looking forward to 2026!

